

MEHLMAN CASTAGNETTI — ROSEN & THOMAS —

Leah Hirsch is a Legislative Assistant at Mehlman Castagnetti Rosen & Thomas, supporting the firm's Democratic team and working with clients to execute their strategic long and short term goals in Washington. Leah handles daily scheduling operations, preparing background materials on legislative priorities, coalition management, organizing panels, travel and fly-ins. She also handles Democratic fundraising and special events, as well as planning related to the Democratic National Convention.

Leah first developed a passion for policy and politics after serving as a high school Page in the U.S. Senate for Senator Blanche Lincoln (D-AR). After college, Leah returned to DC to work for Senator Lincoln conducting constituent outreach and providing support for the Senator's scheduling and office, during which time she gained valuable experience on Senate floor procedure and in congressional office operations. She also worked as Field Organizer for the Democratic Coordinated Campaign of Louisiana during the 2008 Presidential Campaign and has been an active volunteer in multiple Senate races.

Leah graduated from Rhodes College, where she was captain of the Varsity Dive Team and a student member of Board of Trustees. While attending Rhodes she worked with many advocacy groups, including grassroots support for the Refugee Empowerment program in Memphis, TN. She is currently a member of the Women's Congressional Golf Association, enjoys playing tennis, and traveling.
